

Ondansetron (Zofran®)

Drug Name: Zofran®

Generic Name: ondansetron

Purpose: Zofran is used to lessen nausea and/or vomiting that occurs within 3 days after your chemotherapy or surgery. There are other medications that can be used to treat nausea or vomiting that begins more than 3 days after your chemotherapy treatment or surgery.

Form:

- Pill
- Oral (by mouth) liquid
- Intravenous (IV)

How to take:

- Zofran may be given orally (by mouth) in pill or liquid form
 - Take Zofran 30 – 60 minutes before eating if you are nauseous
- Zofran may be given intravenously (into a vein)
 - Your doctor will determine your dose and schedule

Possible Side Effects:

- Headache
- Blurred vision
- Diarrhea
- Constipation